2. Comments for the Current Month

Sales at existing stores reached 108.7% year-on-year, marking the fifth consecutive month of surpassing the previous year's results.
The rush in demand ahead of the price increase for alcoholic beverages served as a tailwind, contributing to the sales growth.
Amid growing consumer frugality, sales of consumables such as detergents, snacks, and pet food, which were promoted for their value, performed well.
Sales of home appliances such as TVs, vacuum cleaners, air conditioners, and washing machines, for which sales efforts were strengthened to meet moving-related demand, also saw significant growth.
